Dani Domínguez is one of the most popular, creative and versatile drummer in Spain, with 1500 events, and more than 40 recordings as a professional.

With his own language, a deep commitment to the groove, and lack of prejudice, he went through non-regular paths from flamenco to electrónics, from jazz to hip-hop, from pop to avant-guarde, allways succesfully, and with great feedback from critics and public.

We can enjoy his works on jazz (Bill McHenry, Perico Sambeat, Ben Monder, Jean Paul Bourelly, Brian Charette, Guillermo Klein, Ernesto Aurignac, Chris Kase, Llibert Fortuny...), hiphop (Kase.O Jazz Magnetism, Mala Rodriguez, R de Rumba, Elphomega, Dive Dibosso, Griffi...), flamenco (Chano Domínguez, Rubem Dantas, Jorge Pardo, Javier Colina, Dan Ben Lior, Rycardo Moreno, José Manuel León...), free improvisation (Agustí Fernandez, Tom Chant, BIB, Pablo Rega...), cuban music (Miguel Angel "Angá", Daniel Amat, Iván "Melón" Lewis, Dany Noel, Carlos Sarduy...), pop (Santiago Auserón, Marc Parrot, Antílopez...), electrónic music (Velcro, Arnau Sala) or rock (Los Suaves, Cornelius).

As highlights on his career, we could remark awards like "Best Drummer" (2004) and "Best Band" (2003/2004/2005) given by Associació de Músicos de Jazz y Música Moderna de Catalunya, or his performance at international music festivals like Donosti Jazzaldia, Getxo, Grec, Madrid, Barcelona, Hoilhaart (Belgica), Brussels Jazz Marathon (Bélgica), European Jazz Sardegna (Italia), Vietnam, Kaunas Jazz (Lituania), Jazz Au Chellah (Marruecos), Popkomm (Alemania), Jazz Ebre (Francia), Toulouse (Francia), Personal Fest (Argentina), Hip Hop Mx (México DF) or at world-premier jazz clubs like Budapest Jazz Center (Hungría), Bimhuis (Amsterdam), San Francisco Jazz Center, Blue Note and Lincoln Center (Nueva York), Jamboree (Barcelona) o Café Central (Madrid).
